married in Aug. Sat. at the Presbyterian manse and will live in C-dale. Some catch I told Helen not to feel bad as it cannot be helped. Pop says Fred Wallace told him Sam Kokelo was down here last week with a brand new wife said she seems real nice and told Sam to get back where he came from, as from the looks of his wife it looked as if he had got mixed up with good people and to stay there and not to get mixed up with the crowd he did down here.

Helen Schunder was sick Friday started to school, got as far as Garlis and came back crying with a pain across her abdomen shoulders and little finger but is better now and back to school.
Mr. Sch - came in with the excuse for me to fill out for him he did not understand it, also brought me a bottle of huckleberry wine so if this writing looks wobbly, you know why.

Aunt Lydia and Margaux were here yesterday afternoon a while on their way down
